

Women in Industry 2024 (Round 1) – Successful Grant Recipients
Organisation	Project Title	Target audience	Project delivery location	Description of Activity	Grant amount (ex GST)
AgForce Queensland Farmers Ltd	The Queensland Women in Agriculture Leadership Program (QWALP)	Women in leadership & Women already engaged in male-dominated industries (early career)	Brisbane and regional locations	An Initiative empowering women in agriculture with vital leadership, management, and commercial skills. The program focuses on tough conversations, leading change and fostering a commercial mindset. It equips women with the skills to manage people and the confidence to run teams and businesses.	$144,400
Engineers Australia	Women Leading forward: Regional Engineering leadership forum series	Women in leadership & Women already engaged in male-dominated industries (early career), Male champions/future male champions	Cairns	Regional event empowering women in engineering. The event will focus on women in leadership and cultural change while also engaging male champions to foster a supportive and inclusive culture in the engineering field.	$19,967
Manufacturing Excellence Forum Inc	Women in Manufacturing Leadership Program	Women in leadership & Women already engaged in male-dominated industries (early career)	Sunshine Coast	A leadership program delivered through a series of training, networking, and mentoring events and workshops to increase the number of women in senior leaderships positions within the manufacturing industry.	$20,000
Sugar Research Australia Ltd	Women in Sugar Science: Cultivating Leaders	Women in leadership & Women already engaged in male-dominated industries (early career)	Townsville	A forum designed to empower and support Queensland women working in the scientific research and development sector of the sugar industry. The forum will focus on skilling, mentoring, inspiring, and supporting women as they pursue careers in a male-dominated field.	$32,375
The National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) (Queensland Chapter)	Building Futures: Advancing Regional Women in Construction through Mentoring and Training	Women in leadership & Women already engaged in male-dominated industries (early career)	Townsville, Toowoomba, Gladstone & Mackay	The Building Futures Program aims to improve the support and retention of women in construction across regional Queensland by expanding successful mentoring and training programs. The project will also include the delivery of training for regional companies to foster a safer, more inclusive workplace.	$146,250
Trellis Collective Pty Ltd	Readi Runway Workforce Readiness Program	Women in leadership, Women already engaged (early career) & Women and girls	Virtual delivery in Brisbane, Gold Coast, Townsville, Cairns & Mackay	Development and delivery of a pilot program to increase workforce readiness, resilience and industry awareness for female university students entering into construction roles.	$148,450

Women in Industry 2024 (Round 1) – Successful Grant Recipients

Organisation	Project Title	Target audience	Project delivery location	Description of Activity	Grant amount (ex GST)
		considering a career in male-dominated industries
UNIQ You	UNIQ You's Industry Link: Live Virtual Tours	Women and girls considering a career in male-dominated industries	Virtual to regional and rural schools in Queensland	The program will support young females to aspire to careers in the energy and renewable sector through increasing their interest and knowledge in the sector. Girls attending rural and remote schools will gain virtual access to female role models from the energy sector.	$122,400
WISER (Women in Sustainable Energy & Resources) Inc.	WISER's Women on Boards Project	Women already engaged (early career) & Women considering exiting careers in male-dominated industries	Brisbane, Townsville, Mackay, Gladstone and Mt Isa	Women on Boards training to increase gender diversity for Queensland and Australian energy and resource companies.	$20,000
Women in Aviation Australian Chapter	Aviation Champions of Change	Male Aviation Sector Leaders	Cairns	The Aviation Champions of Change Forum aims to foster a safe and interactive environment for men and allies in the Aviation & Aerospace industries, promoting impactful changes within workplaces and the broader industry. The forum focuses on creating a strong, inclusive culture that embraces diversity and provides equitable opportunities for all.	$20,000