

| Investing in Queensland Women Grant Round 2 2022 – Successful Grant Recipients | | | | | |
|---|--|--|----------------------------------|--|----------------|
| Organisation name | Project title | Target audience | Project delivery location | Description of activity | Funding |
| Aboriginal & Islanders Development & Recreational Women's Association Mount Isa and District Inc. | Inspiration Cooking | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people, people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities, people with disability, LGBTIQ+ people, older people, young people (12-25 years), Other: | Menzies | Development of a cookbook featuring favourite recipes and inspiring stories from women and girls who attend or work at Your support service in Mount Isa. | $5,000 |
| African Professionals of Australia Limited | STEM mentorship program for African school girls | People from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities, young people (12-25 years) | Redbank Plains | Initiative delivering STEM mentorship program for African school girls to encourage students from African backgrounds to pursue careers in STEM and Law. | $14,400 |
| Arts Nexus Inc | Tapestry of Tales | General community | Babinda | Development of an all-female podcast series that tells women's stories and elevates their concerns and solutions in a variety of fields. | $10,000 |
| Bundaberg Canegrowers Ltd | Women in Sugar Australia Conference "Women Of Worth" | Other: Rural Sugar Farming Women | Bargara | A two-day Women in Sugar conference in Bundaberg in May 2023 to celebrate the achievements and skills of women in the industry. | $4,111 |
| Cape York Institute | 'Jalbu Jalbu' Yarning Circle (Jalbu Jalbu - kuku Yalanji for many women) | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people, older people, general community | Cairns North | Bringing together Cape York Leadership Academy alumni women to participate in a Jalbu Jalbu Yarning Circle to inform the development of a Women's Leadership Program to advance the rights, interests and well-being of First Nation women and girls in Queensland and beyond. | $15,000 |

| Investing in Queensland Women Grant Round 2 2022 – Successful Grant Recipients | | | | | |
|---|--|--|----------------------------------|---|----------------|
| Organisation name | Project title | Target audience | Project delivery location | Description of activity | Funding |
| Central Queensland University | Inform, Prevent, Support: Helping Queensland Women to Safely Navigate Online Dating Apps | LGBTIQ+ people, older people, general community | Cairns | Production of a set of video resources to help women returning to, or new to, the dating scene and dating app technology. To provide educational and practical information focused on recent legislative changes about online sharing of intimate images. | $15,000 |
| Cloncurry Shire Council | Cloncurry International Women's Day | General community | Cloncurry | Hosting an International Women's Day event in March 2023 to bring together the women of Cloncurry and encourage social inclusiveness, good health and well-being and a focus on the experience and challenges face by rural and remote women. | $5,000 |
| Food Beverage Institute Limited | First Nations Women Feeding the World | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people | Portsmith | Development of a program to empower Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women to create an Indigenous food business. | $15,000 |
| George Street Neighbourhood Centre Association Inc | Mum's of Mackay - mindfulness, moving & wellness | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people, people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities | East Mackay | A series of workshops and activities over five weeks to improve mental and physical health outcomes for women experiencing social hardship in Mackay. | $11,189 |
| Gladstone Chamber of Commerce & Industry Inc | This Is Us | General community | Gladstone Central | Development of a photographic portrait and digital media collection to recognise and celebrate women in business in the Gladstone region. | $9,868 |

| Investing in Queensland Women Grant Round 2 2022 – Successful Grant Recipients | | | | | |
|---|---|--|----------------------------------|---|----------------|
| Organisation name | Project title | Target audience | Project delivery location | Description of activity | Funding |
| Householders' Options to Protect the Environment (HOPE) Inc. | Acknowledging and celebrating the contribution women of the Darling Downs have made and are making to protecting and conserving our environment | General community | Newtown | Creation of a podcast series to recognise the work and stories of Darling Downs women who have advocated, championed and rallied for the environment. The interviews will highlight the benefits of having women in leadership and decision-making positions. | $2,628 |
| Hub Community Projects Inc | International Women's Day Celebration | People from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities | Inala | Hosting an International Women's Day event at Your Hub Neighbourhood Centre in March 2023 to bring together women from Inala and surrounding areas to celebrate their diversity and contributions to the community. | $2,550 |
| Japan Community of Queensland Inc | Power Nadeshiko Japanese Women's Empowerment | People from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities | Merrimac | Development of a series of culturally and linguistically appropriate short videos, interviews and online forums to raise awareness about how gender inequality contributes to violence against women, particularly for Japanese women and girls in Queensland. | $9,300 |
| Keppel Bay Sailing Club Association Ltd | Women's Sailing Regatta | Other: Women | Yeppoon | Hosting a Women's Sailing Regatta to enable women to showcase their skills and increase recognition for women sailors and administrators. The event will increase women's visibility in a sport where women are usually required to compete against men and women are significantly under-represented in competitions and administration. | $4,400 |

| Investing in Queensland Women Grant Round 2 2022 – Successful Grant Recipients | | | | | |
|---|---|---|----------------------------------|---|----------------|
| Organisation name | Project title | Target audience | Project delivery location | Description of activity | Funding |
| Nambour Community Centre Inc | Right the wrongs. Increasing awareness of women's rights and empowering women to exercise their rights. | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people, people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities, people with disability, LGBTIQ+ people, older people, young people (12-25 years), general community | Nambour | A series of events to increase awareness of women's rights and empower women through an International Women's Day event, workshops focusing on family law, domestic violence, employment and finance and a community art project. | $14,991 |
| National Association of Women in Construction | NAWIC QLD Regional Toolbox Roadshow | Other: Women in construction in Queensland's regions | Urraween | Delivery of the Toolbox Session to regional areas across Queensland to engage with women in construction to provide support and promote inclusion for women in the male-dominated construction industry. Events will be held in Hervey Bay, Darling Downs, Central Queensland and North Queensland. | $10,000 |
| North Queensland Combined Women's Services Incorporated | Towards a Safer Future | general community | Aitkenvale | A multi-part educational video series to be used in community education workshops during Queensland Women's Week 2023 with the focus on prevention, early intervention, crisis and post-crisis support to women and girls over the age of 12 years who have experienced sexual violence. | $9,924 |

| Investing in Queensland Women Grant Round 2 2022 – Successful Grant Recipients | | | | | |
|---|--|--|----------------------------------|---|----------------|
| Organisation name | Project title | Target audience | Project delivery location | Description of activity | Funding |
| Northern Peninsula Area Family and Community Services Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Corporation | Barriers and Solutions to reporting sexual violence in the Northern Peninsula Area | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people | Bamaga | A series of focused workshop consultations with girls aged 12 - 17 years and women 18 years and above, from each of the 5 Northern Peninsula Area (NPA) communities to unpack the gendered nature of sexual violence and barriers to reporting sexual violence. | $10,000 |
| Older Women's Network (Queensland) Inc. | Women connecting communities connecting women | Older people | Ipswich | A half-day event in Ipswich to highlight the importance of community connection in reducing social isolation and to raise the visibility of older women by elevating their voices through storytelling. | $8,800 |
| Queensland Writers Centre Incorporated | Queensland Women - My Story, My Voice | Other: All Qld women and girls | South Brisbane | A series of writing empowerment workshops for women culminating in the publication of an anthology of work. | $15,000 |
| Reef and Rainforest Research Centre Ltd | Deadly Women of the Torres Strait | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people | Thursday Island | Implementing an already-proven Indigenous women's leadership and training program to the Torres Strait region. The project will empower women living on remote islands in the Torres Strait by developing their job readiness and fostering women's leadership and talent within their local communities. | $15,000 |

| Investing in Queensland Women Grant Round 2 2022 – Successful Grant Recipients | | | | | |
|---|---|---|----------------------------------|---|----------------|
| Organisation name | Project title | Target audience | Project delivery location | Description of activity | Funding |
| Surf Witches Boardriders Club Inc | Taking off - Tales of Older Women Who Surf | Older people, general community | Surfers Paradise | Delivery of a documentary about six older women who surf or are learning to surf. The film will tell the stories of why and how they came to surfing and the benefits they feel, including increased confidence, health, fitness, a supportive community to engage in as they age and removing barriers to thrive in a male-dominated industry/environment. | $14,985 |
| The Townsville Toy Library Association Inc | Women in STEM - "when I grow up I want to be" | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people | Idalia | Hosting an event for girls aged up to 12 years to celebrate Women in STEM and excite girls about STEM careers. There will be a focus on engaging First Nations women and girls in the event and encouraging them to participate in Your toy library service. | $4,936 |
| The University of Queensland Football Club | Coaching Change | General community | North Lakes | Four female coaches will participate in the Football Queensland Female Only C Diploma coaching course in March 2023 to improve their technical skills and develop leadership, organisational and management skills. | $4,620 |
| Torres Strait Island Regional Council | TSIRC's International Women's Week | Aboriginal people and/or Torres Strait Islander people, Other: Torres Strait Islander Women | Mer Island | A week-long event in the lead-up to International Women's Day in March 2023 to support the introduction and implementation of the organisation's new domestic violence action plan. | $15,000 |

| Investing in Queensland Women Grant Round 2 2022 – Successful Grant Recipients | | | | | |
|--|--|--|----------------------------------|---|----------------|
| Organisation name | Project title | Target audience | Project delivery location | Description of activity | Funding |
| Tree House Australia Pty Ltd | FREE Workshop - preventing family violence in post separation co-parenting relationships | General community, Other: Service providers working with women and children who have experienced DFV or trauma | Cairns North, QLD | Delivery of a workshop in Cairns to educate service providers about the legislation and law processes regarding family law and domestic violence | $10,000 |
| Women's Community Aid Association trading as Brisbane Rape & Incest Survivors Support Centre | LGBTIQ+ Violence Prevention Project | LGBTIQ+ people | Fortitude Valley | Collaborating with specialist service providers there will be two professional training days delivered to practitioners in the sector focused on improving practice and policy responses to LGBTIQ+ women and gender diverse people experiencing sexual and domestic and family violence. Particular focus will be on Trans, Gender Diverse and Nonbinary (TGDNB) people. | $15,000 |
| Y-CARE (SOUTH EAST QUEENSLAND) Inc. | Women's multicultural cooking classes and community meals | People from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities | Cannon Hill | A series of cooking workshops run by local women from various culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) communities to promote inclusivity, create social connections and empower women. After the workshop series is completed, participants will create a cookbook. | $5,000 |
| Zonta Club of Rockhampton Inc | International Women's Day Breakfast | General community | Berserker | Hosting International Women's Day Breakfast in March 2023 in Rockhampton to recognise and celebrate women and girls for their achievements and community contributions. | $2,940 |